DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-29, drawn to a method for treating a postpartum woman to encourage the cessation of lactation comprising applying an amount of greater than 1% cabbage leaf extract by weight of the final composition to the affected area of said woman's breast repeatedly each day commencing on the date of delivery and extending until lactation subsides classified in class 424, subclass 78.03 or class 514, subclass 783.
- II. Claims 30-33, drawn to a formulation for promoting lactation cessation in a lactating woman comprising an extract of a vegetable leaf selected from the group consisting of Brassica oleracea capitata and Brassica campestris Pekinensis in an amount comprising greater than 1% by weight of said formulation and an acceptable topical carrier, classified in class 424, subclass 755.
- III. Claims 34-37, drawn to a kit for promoting lactation cessation in a lactating woman comprising a formulation consisting of a cabbage extract and an acceptable topical carrier, said cabbage extract comprising greater than 1% by weight of said formulation, and instructions for the application of said formulation to said lactating woman, classified in class 435, subclass 975.

Art Unit: 1654

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process of use and product. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. For instance, DE 4006768 teaches a topical antirheumatic agent containing a cabbage leaf extract in an amount greater than 1% of the final composition.

Inventions I and III are related process of use and product. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the process for using the product does not require a kit; and, each invention is deemed patentably distinct one from the other. Moreover, the process as claimed can be practiced with a materially different product.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for one Group is not required for another Group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1654

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
